

Camp Mariposa is a free, weekend camp for 9-12 year olds that are living with addiction in their families. Camp programs are offered multiple times each year and led by mental health and chemical dependency professionals who provide education, counseling and support in a fun, traditional camp setting.

Camp Mariposa is designed to: reduce feelings of isolation, fear, guilt and loneliness, educate campers on the disease of addiction, teach positive life-skills to help manage feelings and practice self-care, and provide information about resources kids can turn to for help.

Camp Mariposa Campers will enjoy a weekend of camp activities:

- Arts and Crafts
- Evening Campfires
- Nature Walks
- Games
- Creative Expression
- Healthy Coping Skills

Camp Mariposa is part of Oaklawn Psychiatric Center of St. Joseph and Elkhart Counties and is sponsored by The Moyer Foundation.
